

Compressed Air Technician – Evansville and Lexington

Responsibilities:

- Provide diagnostic and repair service for compressed air system components. Work to efficiently solve customer problems complying with all safety and process requirements. Promote aftermarket parts, service, and service contracts to contribute to overall sales growth.

Skills/Qualifications:

- Knowledge of compressed air equipment maintenance, refrigeration equipment, electrical troubleshooting, ability to read wire diagrams and blueprints.
- Strong computer skills a necessity.
- EPA Refrigeration certification and experience preferred.
- Safety and service experience with high voltage (480VAC) electrical motors and controls.
- High level of customer interaction required
- Candidates must have strong technical knowledge, but also be professional and have a very high level of personal integrity and accountability.
- On call (afterhours) duties and some in-state travel required.
- Must have own mechanics tools.
- Requires a valid drivers license, drug test, and background check.

Benefits:

- 401(k)
- 401(k) matching
- Dental insurance
- Health insurance
- Health savings account
- Life insurance
- Paid time off
- Vision insurance
- Company vehicle provided

To apply, please send your resume to jobs@airsystems-llc.com